Rod:

1/31- 2/1 or 2/1-2/2 both look to be better choices than the previous for Kim and I. According to Kim's calendar she is available then as am I.

Thanks,

Ed

The plan would be to have the post-award conference on one day and then the partnering session on the following day (two days total.)

For the timeframe, I've been targeting 25/26 January based on what we know from Contracting, but I am a little worried that this might be too aggressive. I'm tending to think that the following week (1st week of February) might be a safer bet. If so, I'd shoot for either Tues/Wed or Wed/Thurs depending on feedback from the team. Would that week work better for you and Kim?

As an FYI, I just got off the phone with AMEC (Randy Huffsmith), and he will start checking with his team to see which dates work best.

Thanks,
Rod Zion

Are you targeting 2 days or 1 for the conference? And I think I heard you say 1/25 or 26.

Is that correct and would it include a partnering meeting?
